

Hurricane Beach

A Southern Storms Sweet Small Town Romance

Book Club Journal

1. Anna & Jason, once high school sweethearts, reunite in this novel while on an adventure of their lifetime.

a. Would you come along to experience the power of a hurricane as it makes landfall, or would you prefer to watch it on TV from far, far away and the safety of your home?

b. If the latter, what if your first love would ask you and you were both single?

2. Do you think Ashleigh's reaction to being uprooted from her familiar life was typical for a teenager? Why or why not?

3. Everyone knows a "Grace"—someone with a tough past who copes with their struggles by lashing out. Do you believe Grace's transformation through recovery will be long-lasting? What makes you think this?

4. Several of the characters in this book are dealing with grief and guilt. Who did you emphasize with the most and why?

- a. Anna - grieving the loss of a marriage she tried to save.
- b. Ashleigh - struggling with the loss of her friends and the life she knew..
- c. Jason - mourning his wife after a tragic accident.
- d. Sarah - coping with the loss of her mother in a car crash.

5. Hurricanes can be an exciting force of nature but yet so devastating. Do you think the novel described the experience realistically? Why or why not?

6. What did you think about Jason and Anna's first kiss at Tybee Island? How did it make you feel?

7. What was your absolute favorite part of the story?

8. What did you think about the ending. Was it satisfying? Did you wish for more?

9. Would you recommend this book to a friend, another book club, or reading groups? Why or why not?
